

COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN IDAHO

TRUSTEES:

ROBERT S. BLASTOCK JR., CLERK
JOHN C. HEPWORTH
JOHN R. COLEMAN

P. O. Box 1238
TWIN FALLS, IDAHO 83301

ADMINISTRATION:

ORVAL L. BRADLEY, DIRECTOR
AREA VOCATIONAL SCHOOL
H. W. VAN SLYKE, BUSINESS MANAGER

November 11, 1971

AGENDA FOR BOARD MEETING MONDAY NOVEMBER 15 1971

MINUTES	5 Minutes
TREASURER'S REPORT	10 Minutes
OLD BUSINESS	10 Minutes
NEW BUSINESS	10 Minutes
PRESIDENT'S REPORT	20 Minutes

COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN IDAHO
REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES
CSI ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE, BOARD ROOM
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1971

CALL TO ORDER: 8:06 PM

PRESIDING: John N. Garrabrandt

PURPOSE: To conduct the regular business of the College of Southern Idaho Junior College District, and such other as may lawfully come before the Board of Trustees.

ATTENDING: Trustees — John Garrabrandt, Eldon Evans, John Coleman, Robert Blastock and John Hepworth.

Alexander.

Visitors — Annette Jenkins of the Statesman, and Lee Tremaine of the Times News.

TREASURER'S REPORT: The October Report of the Treasurer was reviewed. A MOTION by Mr. Evans, seconded by Mr. Hepworth, the Board approved said report as submitted.

by voucher #1 to #251-A inclusive plus voucher #259 totalling $65,013.92, Fund Transfers (voucher 252-258) totalling $10,979.39, and acknowledged the October payroll of $107,600.70, Work Study $12,920.05

PERSONNEL: Dr. Taylor informed the Board that A.A. (Gus) Flowers has submitted be accepted.

resignation was accepted.

OLD BUSINESS: Under this category it was reported:

1. The Vo-Tech building (Project OE 3-8-00135) Phase IV is 68% completed with 62% of the contract time elapsed.
2. Phase 2, Health & PE building (Project OE 3-8-00106) is scheduled to be finalized as far as the construction prime contract is concerned, by the end of this month. Are all the sub-contractors paid? We know of none who are not.
3. Administrative Assistant to the President of CSI was again discussed at some length with a variance of opinion among the members of the Board.
4. Budget — how is current activity reflecting the 72FY Budget? A six (6) month budget analysis will be submitted at the December meeting.

building fund monies for CSI. He feels the recourse now is to have a meeting with our area legislators and talk to them about the needs of the College and to have such a meeting real soon.

NEW BUSINESS CONT'D:

Upon MOTION by Mr. Hepworth, seconded by Mr. Evans, the Board

PRESIDENT'S REPORT: A lively month on CSI campus and for him personally was Dr. Taylor's appraisal of the period since last meeting of the Board. More than 2800 persons other than our regular users of CSI facilities, have been on campus the past few days.

Meetings in Boise included an appearance before the State Board of Education regarding the Educational TV Station and interrelating it with the State Programs for Educational TV; and another as Chairman of the State Board of Education to change the status of this Council.

During this week he will be acting as Chairman of the Accreditation

ANOTHER MOTION — THIS by Mr. Evans seconded by Mr. Diastock, granted the loan.

Secretary W. Sam Slyke

APPROVAL: December 20, 1971

Chairman John V. Garabrandt

Pupils and Taxpayers Both Benefit

The question of how much it costs

The key to the cost factor clearly rests with the number of students who attend ber of Commerce, Dr. Taylor explained would only have to pay $52,500 which is

A pupil living outside of Jerome or Twin Falls Counties — which are the two counties which now constitute the junior college district — pay $150 a semester or $300 a year.

By the way, and not trying to stretch your mind further — Jerome also has 150 other students enrolled in specialized courses.

It is our opinion that the reason why so many students from Jerome county at-

and operation plus retirement of funds and it is this point which crops up most often when residents ponder the complexities of financial support.

For one thing, it is obviously less costly, tuition-wise, for a student to attend.

However, it is important to under-

Another item which can't be over-student each semester or a total of $525 each year.

active part.

To pay the cost to CSI, a county has to obligate 50 per cent of the liquor funds which accrue to that county and up to

We would suspect that if other counties should vote themselves into the college district, the student enrollment from those counties would increase immeas-

If Jerome were not an active partner in the district what would the county

But it is also important to appreciate the fact that the significance of the full time and if you multiply this figure by $625 which is the amount which non-member counties must pay, you arrive at a figure of $170,000.

and cultural center for southern Idaho.

In hearing Dr. Taylor describe various programs and goals of CSI at the recent

Taylor Emphasizes Independent

Dr. James Taylor, president of the College of Southern Idaho, told members of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce at a recent meeting that he does not want the college to be totally supported by the state because of the possibility of loss of local control.

Taylor told the group that generated by the original $3 million bond issue.

However, the president pointed out, the actual value of the facility in dollars and cents pointed out the CSI library as one example.

Taylor said that the CSI library boasts about 80,000

Pupils outside the district, presently comprised of Jerome and Twin Falls pay $150 each semester or $300 per year and the county in which the student is located pays $312.50 each semester or $625 a year. Answering a question from the audience, Taylor said it would be too expensive for the district to run a football the establishment of the facility as well as its growth and progress.

He said that the college has grown from nothing in 1965, the year of its start, to 2,862 pupils today.

Taylor said that the institution occupies a permanent site of about 240 acres and explained that the physical plant and acquisition of land represents from $8 million to $8½ million worth of investment involved, you can see that this is one example of the type of investment which you have," he said.

Taylor said that there are 272 attending from Jerome county plus another 150 part time pupils enrolled in specialized courses.

He told the chamber group that the tuition cost to a Jerome county student attending CSI is $62.50 per semester or $125 a year.

He said that he has looked into the matter thoroughly and has determined it would cost about $75,000 each year to adequately budget the football program.

Taylor said that normally schools attract players by paying room, board, tuition and books.

"We do not take taxpayer's money to subsidize players and we're not going to start," he emphasized.

Taylor explained that financial support for athletics at CSI has been obtained from interested citizens and boosters.

"The board of trustees has economic impact which the

(Continued on page 2)

power of the students and faculty.

"But the fact that CSI is not county," Taylor pointed out. Taylor said that the CSI were established for the first time in the state.

"We are providing an better than any other school in the state for less money.

"It is my hope that CSI will remain a comprehensive community college dedicated to meeting the needs of this area," he said.

Taylor was introduced at the chamber meeting by the Rev. John N. Garrabrandt, president of the college's board of trustees.

CSI Program

... The Rev. John N. Garrabrandt, standing, chairman of the board of trustees of the College of Southern Idaho, introduces Dr. James Taylor, foreground, during a recent meeting of the Jerome Chamber of Commerce. Taylor told members about the college's progress and future plans. Also shown are Jim Keith, third from left, chamber president, and Wilson B. Churchman, chamber manager.