PRESIDENT'S REPORT: The College is fulfilling its community service role, in February 28,445 people visited our campus.

We are pursuing the availability of funds to drill a well, hopefully for thermal water, that could be used to heat and cool the museum. We now have an application and are looking into Environmental Protection Agency standards with disposition of surplus water.

English Department, were handed out to members of the Board. Several Board members commented favorably on the publication.

Dr. Taylor expressed appreciation for the cooperation of Dr. John Lawrence with the College of Southern Idaho at the time that classes were being held in the high school. He also indicated that a memorial of flowers had been sent for the funeral service of Dr. Lawrence for our Herrett Museum.

Dr. Taylor reported that there is much activity on campus, that he is still working on the opening of the North Campus road to Blue Lakes.

The in-door rifle range in the basement of Nye Building #2 will be completed soon. It could accommodate city and county law enforcement officials in our district if they so desire.
