OVERVIEW
Foster PRIDE/Adopt PRIDE Report

Family foster care and adoptions are two essential child welfare options in the State of Hawaii for children and parents who must live apart. Both of these options for the greater part entail the placement of children with licensed families. Key to this activity is the recruitment, training and licensing of foster families.

Planning Considerations

Three preliminary land-use schematics were generated to explore a variety of options for campus expansion. The intent of these plans was to suggest functional patterns of land use.
