5 The Dresident discussed the emphasion of the armus carees

North College Road and the need for infrastructure in that area. He stated that the City of Twin Falls would allow us to construct a road along the north edge of our property to connect Washington Street to the current North College Road just north of the Herrett Center. This would allow us to slow down and control traffic on the portion of North College Road that runs through the campus. Dale Riedesel indicated that it would cost between $175 and $200 per foot to construct a 48 foot wide road. His rough estimate for the road project, including ourh outter sidewalks and landscaping was
