

COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN MARYLAND

Report of the Board of Trustees, Reagan, Jan. 1964

The Board of Trustees of the College of Southern Travel, Inc. has the honor to present to you the following report for the year ending December 31, 1963.

The College of Southern Travel, Inc. was organized in 1958 as a non-profit corporation for the purpose of providing a high quality of travel education and training for the travel industry. The College has since that time been a leader in the field of travel education and training, and has been recognized as such by the travel industry and the general public.

The College's primary objective is to provide a high quality of travel education and training for the travel industry. This is accomplished through the provision of a variety of travel education and training programs, including the following:

- Travel Education Program
- Travel Training Program
- Travel Management Program
- Travel Marketing Program
- Travel Sales Program
- Travel Service Program
- Travel Agency Program
- Travel Industry Program
- Travel Industry Association Program
- Travel Industry Council Program
- Travel Industry Foundation Program
- Travel Industry Institute Program
- Travel Industry Center Program
- Travel Industry Office Program
- Travel Industry Department Program
- Travel Industry Division Program
- Travel Industry Branch Program
- Travel Industry Office Program
- Travel Industry Department Program
- Travel Industry Division Program
- Travel Industry Branch Program

The College's primary objective is to provide a high quality of travel education and training for the travel industry. This is accomplished through the provision of a variety of travel education and training programs, including the following:

