Parental Involvement

Parental involvement is a key component of the Head Start program.

Parents are encouraged to participate in their child's education.

This includes attending parent-teacher conferences.

and helping with homework.

Parents are also encouraged to help their child with reading and math.

Head Start programs provide a variety of services to support parental involvement.

These services include parent-teacher conferences, home visits, and parent training.

Head Start programs also provide a variety of resources to help parents.

These resources include books, toys, and educational materials.
