

Nursing assistants are unlicensed personnel employed to perform basic nursing care services for the ill, injured, handicapped or disabled under the direction and supervision of licensed nurses in hospitals, nursing homes, private homes and other health care agencies and settings.

