

About the Ethics Review Pre-Application

reported on your Application for Certification and Registration when you have completed an ARRT-recognized educational program.

This form is reserved for those who are:

- not yet enrolled in an ARRT-recognized educational program, or
- enrolled in an ARRT-recognized educational program and are at least Review Pre-Application Submission of the Ethics Review P

*packet with your Application for Application for Certification and Registration
available from your program director, along with the required
Application for Certification and Registration
Application for Certification and Registration*

Application for Certification and Registration must still be submitted at the time of graduation.

What to report

The Ethics Review Pre-Application may be used to report the following:

-
- Honor code violations.

Checklist

Before submitting, be sure to complete these four steps:

1. Complete the Ethics Review Pre-Application form.
2. Sign the Agreement in the presence of a notary.
3. Enclose all required documentation (see next page). Forms submitted without documentation will not be processed and will be returned.
- 4.

The American Registry of Radiologic Technologists

Ethics Review Pre-Application Agreement