As embodied in Idaho Code, the College of Southern Idaho is governed by a locally elected five member Board of Trustees. Trustees are elected from within the College District comprised of Jerome and Twin Falls counties. Revenue for the operation of the College comes from a combination of sources including tuition and fees, state appropriation, local property taxes, grants, counties not in community college districts, etc.

College of Western Idaho (CWI) Partnership

CSI continues its partnership with the College of Western Idaho (CWI) in order to assist CWI with meeting standards for accreditation and to help CWI offer college credit instruction, certificates and degrees while seeking accredited status with the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). In January 2012, NWCCU granted CWI Candidacy for Accreditation status at the associate degree level. Candidacy is not accreditation nor does it ensure eventual accreditation. Candidate for Accreditation is a status of affiliation with the Commission which indicates that the institution has achieved initial recognition and is progressing toward

“As a state, we are committed to providing the highest quality education possible. In order to meet the training needs in our community and, more broadly, in contributing to an educated U.S. citizenry and a competitive workforce, we pledge to do our part to increase the number of Americans with high quality postsecondary degrees and certifications to fulfill critical local, state, and national goals. With the support of our state and federal partners, we will continue to work together to ensure that every student has the opportunity to succeed in college and in life.”

During the 2012-2013 academic year, CSI continued its campus-wide effort to improve retention and graduation.
