- Come up with a format. Pick from a student's perspective what you would like to hear about. Schedule at a time where everyone can make it; you're less likely to have people show up and think that it's not worth it due to lack of participation. Come up with ideas to get info out from the Senate to the student population.
- The office has become more of an open area, and people outside of Senate are coming in and freely using the Senate computers. Here are rules for the office.
- We will be doing Thank-Kou cards for Lynn, Shelby, and Carmethyst.
