1. Executive Reports

Vice President's Report: We are 2 weeks away from finals. You've learned some great leadership skills. Use that as your base. If you're feeling some anxiety, go and do something fun. You need to release that, otherwise it will be more difficult. Appreciate all of the hard work that you're doing. You know it's difficult. We're in the same boat. Take it one at a time. You've got the skills. You've President's Report: Congratulations on your grades, especially if you want to remain in Senate. When we have guests, you can claim. It's okay if you got charged for the leadership Course, let us know so that we can reimburse you. Work hard this week, we're almost done. If you need to focus on grades, please do that. Make sure you're studying.

Advisor's Report: We got the tree. Many Senators that want to help decorate, you are more than welcome to do so. The baking and pastry students are making gingerbread houses. The gingerbread house parade will be happening.

Senator Gordon adjourned the meeting at 7:30 p.m.
