

Effective date: Fall 2018Semester

Purpose

To establish expectations and guidance in addressing academic dishonesty and misconduct, as defined by the CSI Student Code of Conduct.

Scope

The policy applies to all students taking credit courses at the College of Southern Idaho, and may be applied to Workforce, Community Education, and other CSI students at the discretion of the appropriate Dean or Director. All CSI students are afforded due process regardless of the type of course or courses in which they are enrolled. This policy will impact students, and may impact faculty, staff, and/or administration.

Violations

Academic dishonesty and misconduct is any form of behavior which results in students giving or receiving unauthorized assistance in an academic exercise or receiving credit for work which is not their own. The following are defined acts of academic dishonesty and misconduct. Other behaviors not itemized below, but still fitting the broad definition above are also classified as academic dishonesty and misconduct.

- A. Cheating . using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise including all work submitted for credit or hours.
- B. Fabrication . unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.
- C. Plagiarism . the adoption or reproduction of ideas, words, or statements of another person without appropriate acknowledgement.
- D. Unauthorized Collaboration . sharing information or working together in an academic exercise when the course faculty member does not approve of such actions.
- E. Facilitation . helping or attempting to help another to violate a provision of the academic dishonesty and misconduct policy listed above.
- F. Abuse, theft, or vandalism of shared or communal learning resources, including digital resources.

When a faculty member believes a violation(s) of academic integrity has occurred, it is his/her responsibility to initiate the Resolution process.

of an outcome if they believe they have grounds for such an appeal. Below is the list of items that are grounds for an appeal of an outcome:

